Program Title: Elderly Drivers: Fears and Facts

Individual Presentation: Speaker(s): Shirley Neitch, MD, FACP, AGSF

Objectives:

At the conclusion of this program, participants should be able to:

1. Recognize that older drivers' safety is a public health issue
2. Recognize that all older drivers are not alike, and that healthcare and social service providers have a role in identifying those whose driving skills may be impaired
3. Interpret the conflict inherent in "need to drive" vs. "identified deficits in driving skills"
4. Infer that physicians and their office staff have a valid role in driving skills assessment
