

OMG Uniform Guidance Training

Overview: In 2014, the Federal Office of Management and Budget (OMB) put new grantmaking rules into effect that require governments at all levels that hire nonprofits to deliver services to reimburse those nonprofits for their reasonable indirect costs when federal dollars are part of the funding stream.

AUGUST 10, 2016 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM

American Red Cross
1299 Pineview Drive; Suite 300
Morgantown, WV 26505

AUGUST 11, 2016 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM

Habitat for Humanity ReStore Education and Community Center
815 Court Street
Charleston, WV 25301

Workshop Highlights:

- Indirect, Overhead and Administrative Costs – Definitions and Difference
- Understanding the Costs in Your Nonprofit
- Indirect Cost Rates and Different Methodologies
- Whether and How to Negotiate a Federal Indirect Cost Rate
- Public policy implications
- And more

Presenter: Beth Bowsky is the Policy Specialist for Government-Nonprofit Contracting at the National Council of Nonprofit where she manages the NCN's program to promote fairer and simpler contracting processes and procedures across the country. Beth has a passion for convening diverse groups of people from the public and private sectors to expand the capacity of charitable nonprofits to deliver better services and value. Her career in the nonprofit arena began while she was earning a degree in social work at the University of Cincinnati. She was one of the youngest people in Ohio to become executive director of a multi-service, nonprofit agency, and served as Chair of Public Policy for the Ohio Association of Child Caring Agencies. Beth's work as president of her own consulting firm included helping the Ohio Children's Trust Fund reorganize and streamline collaborative funding efforts in each of the state's 88 counties. As a National Leadership Consultant for Arlington, Va.-based National Alliance On Mental Illness (NAMI), Beth assisted state organizations across the country build and implement strategic plans for growth, governance, and advocacy, while also serving as a speaker and trainer at state and national conventions.

Who should attend: Nonprofit Executive Directors and CFOs with state or federal grants/contracts.